

SPRINGTAIL ORDERS

Trek Aerospace's Springtail is in the final stages of development and testing, and if you wish to purchase a Springtail you may do so as an "experimental aircraft".

Under FAA regulations, the Springtail can only be sold as an "experimental aircraft", and these rules of sale will be followed regardless of your location. The purchase price is $1,250,000.^{00*}.

DRAGONFLY ORDERS

The Dragonfly is currently conceptual vehicle; however most of the technology from Springtail is designed to port directly over to the Dragonfly model, thus accelerating the development process.

Under FAA regulations, the Dragonfly can only be sold as an "experimental aircraft", and these rules of sale will be followed regardless of your location. The purchase price is $1,550,000.^{00*}.

If you are interested in ordering a Dragonfly or Springtail vehicle, please complete the section below or contact Harry at 209-368-5800.
